Box 1 Fld 1 - 1937 - Life Magazine. 3 Page spread on Doane College

Fld 2 - 1872-1912: Drafts of the manuscript for the history of Doane College. It had information on the presidents and buildings on campus.

Fld 3 - 1872-1912: Original Manuscript for the history of Doane College completed by J. Brenneman, a professor at Doane.

Fld 5 - 1855: The start of research on the history of Doane College and the work being collected to form a research project on this information.

Fld 6 - 1873-1883: Research on student activities and information on the history of the activities.

Fld 7 - 1855-1872: The history of the beginning of Doane College starting with Fontenelle College.

Fld 8 - 1872-1881: Research on the history of Doane college.

Fld 9 - A Doane professor's research on the history of Doane College.
Fld 10 - 1880-1890: Documents on building Merrill Hall and the college on the hill.

Fld 11- 1950: Fred and another guy from Yale, gather information and wrote multiple documents on the history of Doane College. One of the professors at Doane was writing a thesis on Doane’s history.

Fld 12 - 1880-1912: Charts of financial money and donations to Doane. The folder also includes other stats such as football scores. Letters included about donations from presidents.

Fld 13 - 1870-1912: Letters about various student activities. Mentions a football player that got killed in a game and Doane got rid of football for two years.

Fld 14 - Letters from professors and administration trying to collect data for Doane College History Project. A relic from the past that is extremely fragile and should not be handled.

Fld 15 - Multiple Dates: Letters and articles about the establishment of Doane College

Fld 16 - 1909-1950s: Honorary Doctoral Degrees list. Folder also includes letters that communicate the establishment of the history of Doane College collection. It was known as the Doane College History Project.

Pamphlets - The Troubles of Uncle Sam, Doane College, Doane Owl, The Doane College Bulletin, and Commercial department of Doane College that teaches students penmanship and typewriting. .